6 March 1985

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM: George V. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs Office

SUBJECT: Yale Political Union Visit

John.

1. Action Requested: None. This is background information only concerning the visit of the Yale Political Union on Wednesday, 13 March, in Room 7D32.

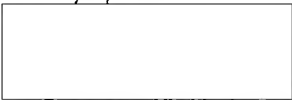

2. Arrangements: Please see attached agenda. The Yale Political Union is interested in the role of intelligence in foreign policy or a general overview of the Agency. Fifteen minutes of remarks followed by fifteen minutes of Q's and A's would be appropriate. If you are able, please join us for coffee and stay for any other part of the schedule that interests you. I will be introducing the speakers and members of my staff will be present throughout the briefing.

3. Background: Since its founding by Dean Acheson, the Yale Political Union has been the largest student organization at Yale. The group recently celebrated its 50th Anniversary. According to the Union's officers, it has become a national forum for nonpartisan political discussion. President Ronald Reagan, Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger, and Senator Gary Hart have spoken to the group at the New Haven campus. This year in addition to visiting CIA, they are meeting with:

Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger
FBI Director William Webster
The Nicaraguan Ambassador
Director of the Congressional Budget Office Rudolph Penner
Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Samuel R. Pierce
Head of the Arms Control START Talks Edward Rowny
Deputy Director of Arms Control David Emery
Justice William Renquist
Chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation William M. Isaac

The Union originally asked either the DCI or the DDCI to appear on campus. We elected instead to have the group here during their spring trip. (See attachment for list of students attending briefing.)

Mr. William Casey
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

It is my great privilege to invite you to deliver a keynote address at a debate of the Yale Political Union this Spring. The Union is the largest student organization at Yale, and has just completed its 50th Anniversary celebration. Since its founding in 1934, by Dean Acheson among others, it has become a national forum for nonpartisan political discussion. Past speakers at the Union include Ronald Reagan, Caspar Weinberger, Gary Hart, and, most recently, Ed Koch. We would be honored if you would help us carry on this fine tradition in the upcoming spring term.

You are welcome, of course, to choose the topic on which you would like to speak. Perhaps you would be willing to speak on the use of covert action. If it is possible for you to join us, we would be glad to discuss the details of topic and format. We would like to schedule this event sometime between the third week of January and the last week of April, 1985. Also, if you cannot find time to come to New Haven, perhaps you would be willing to meet with a group of us when we visit Washington from the 11th to the 13th of March. Last year we were privileged to meet with Vice-President Bush, and FBI Director William Webster, among others.

As is our custom, we would be happy to reimburse your travel expenses. Should you wish to spend the night in New Haven, we would be delighted to serve as your hosts. I look forward to hearing from you and hope we will have the honor and pleasure of meeting with you in either New Haven or Washington this Spring.

Sincerely yours,

David Meltzer

Mr. John McMahon
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. McMahon:

Each Spring the Yale Political Union plans a trip to Washington where we meet with members of the U.S. Government and the international community. During last year's trip we met with Vice-President George Bush and FBI Director William Webster, among others.

We would be greatly honored if you could meet with us when we visit Washington this Spring. We will be in Washington from March 11th through March 13th; if you could find time in your schedule to meet with a group of us for half an hour or so of informal discussion, we would be very grateful. If it is possible for you to meet with us, then we can try to work out an exact time -- hopefully it will simply be a matter of choosing some time for us to come by your office (or a nearby conference room).

The Political Union is the largest student organization at Yale. Since its founding in 1934, by Dean Acheson and Harvey Bundy, among others, it has evolved into a national forum for bipartisan discussion. The Union strives to provide the leaders of tomorrow with a chance to exchange ideas and learn from the leaders of today.

I look forward to hearing from you and hope we will have the honor and pleasure of seeing you in March.

Sincerely yours,

David Meltzer
